

informaworldTM

a librarian's guide

For the first time, the electronic resources of Taylor & Francis, the academic division of Informa, are brought together in one searchable interface. For your students, searching is easier.

For you, managing your resources is easier. This guide is designed to help you manage your resources and help you and your customers make the most out of informaworldTM.

For more information, including title lists, pricing information and ways to promote publications and informaworldTM in your library, visit: www.informaworld.com/librarians

For support please email: support@informaworld.com

www.informaworld.com

eBooks

Journals

Reference Works

Abstract Databases

what resources are available on informaworld™?

informaworld™ provides access to all journals and database products from Taylor & Francis, Routledge and Psychology Press. In addition, over 180 Informa Healthcare journals are available. informaworld™ also provides access to a growing collection of reference works and 10,000 eBooks from the Informa group.

informaworld™

how do I claim online access?

When your subscription order for an electronic resource is processed you will be sent notification and automatically have access on informaworld™. You can then access informaworld™ and set up IP addresses to enable access for your library users.

how can informaworld™ help me?

By having all our products and services in one place, informaworld™ will save you time by managing your online resources more effectively. From the My Account area you can edit your account details, update login details, view your purchasing history and your usage reports.

■ My Account

- Edit your address
- Change your institution's contact name and email
- Update your IP addresses

Plus...

- Register your Athens details
- Register your link resolver
- Upload your library logo

■ Subscriptions

Manage your collection at a glance – choose to view subscriptions you manage or all subscriptions including those through consortia. Keep your library systems up-to-date by downloading your subscription lists.

■ Purchases

Keep an eye on your document delivery budget by viewing your purchase history.

■ Shopping cart

View the subscription and document purchases you have added to your cart.

■ Marked Lists

Create online course packs by selecting resources from informaworld™ and adding them to a marked list.

■ Saved Searches

An alternative way to keep up-to-date with a research topic – run a search, save it, and rerun it on future occasions, or create an email alert.

■ Reports

Download COUNTER-compliant usage reports for journals, abstract databases, eBooks and encyclopedias. All reports are compliant to the latest standards published by COUNTER. As an institutional administrator you will receive notification of new reports by email.

■ Alerts

Keep up-to-date with your subscribed resources and others of interest:

- ifirst alerts
- New issue alerts
- Citation alerts
- New publication alerts
- Encyclopedia update alerts
- Abstract database update alerts
- Search Alerts
- RSS feeds

informaworld™